Krishna Singh Bisht at The Almeria International Film Festival.

Krishna Singh Bisht who has been a part of some great Bollywood movie from Vic
Newton has came a long way in his Journey. He was Recently attending The Almer International Film Festival in Spain to Represent his Film,"The Alex'sStrip with th Cast.

The Alex's Strip is Directed by the very Talented Director Irene zoe Alameda Fighting stereotypes,and the relationship between a father and a daughter after 1 absence were some ofthe messages that were reflected in the story, which opts to the Opera Prima contest , within the Almeria International Film Festival.

Krishna Singh Bisht said, "I am not like the character, who is very religious and wi beliefs. You can do anything for money. To work the character had to be like a snal sinuous movements to deceive."

"After watching the Film somebody from the audience came up to me and said you of Joker, with the way you smile & Scare people with your acting, it feels so real. A listening to this I was on Cloud Nine as, I think Getting Compared to the Iconic Ch Joker is the Biggest Compliment. Being a part of this project and coming all the wa to present it, has given me even more Confident to do my work with Honesty and l added Krishna
